

Miami-Dade County Fair and Exposition, Inc.

Scholarship Program

To recognize and honor the educational achievement of Miami-Dade County youth, The Fair™ this year is awarding more than $100,000 to qualifying students from state-accredited/eligible public and private high schools in Miami-Dade County.

Applications will be available in the college advisory offices or the equivalent at all eligible schools. Awardees will be named by, and honored, during The Fair™.

To apply, students must be graduating seniors planning to attend a college, university or trade school; must be a U.S. citizen or a resident alien; and must submit the required application through a high school college guidance office.

Awards will be based on the applicants' working at their highest level academically; the quality of school/community activities; and essays and testimonials from two current sources.

For more information, inquire at your high school college advisement office.

The Walter B. Arnold Jr. Youth Hall of Fame

This Award is dedicated to the dream of Walter B. Arnold, Jr. It recognizes student leadership qualities and outstanding achievement in school and the community. The Youth Hall of Fame has been created to commemorate those students who unselfishly give of their time and energy to benefit those around them.

This award recognizes noteworthy youth achievement for private and public middle and high school students from Miami-Dade County in service to their school and/or community. The Youth Hall of Fame was created to commemorate those students whose unselfish commitment of time and energy have impacted others in a beneficial way. By publicizing youth achievement in such a manner, the Youth Hall of Fame serves as a beacon to present and future youth.

The brochure, application and further information on this contest are available on the website: www.youthhalloffame.org. For further assistance, please contact the Youth Hall of Fame Coordinator at: info@youthhalloffame.org
